RHINELAND DECLARES ITSELF A REPUBLIC

CITIZENS PUT ON GREEN, RED, WHITE ARMBANDS, 10,000 SEPARATISTS ACT

Aix la Chapelle, Mayence, Duren and Other Important Cities in the Buffer Country Between France and Germany Were Seized by the Separatists

French and Belgians Occupying the Strip of Territory in Which the Uprising Occurred Did Not Interfere; Coup Carried Out at Midnight

(By United Press)
Berlin, Oct. 22.—A blow against which the German republic has been steeling itself fell Sunday. Citizens of the Rhineland arose, put on green, red and white arm bands, armed themselves, and declared a separate republic.

Aix la Chapelle, Mayence, Duren and other important cities in the buffer country between France and Germany were seized by the separatists.

The French and Belgians occupying the strip of territory in which the uprising occurred did not interfere.

The one hope of the Stresemann government, ill-equipped to meet the revolt, and harassed by trouble in Bavaria and economic difficulties, was that the separatist revolt was immature.

It was understood at first that Herr Smeets and Dr. Dorten, who have been regarded as recognized leaders of the Rhineland movement, had not authorized yesterday's proclamations.

Movement Started at Aix la Chapelle

At Aix la Chapelle, where the movement started, the proclamations which were posted about the city were signed by Leo Deckers and Dr. Guthier, more or less independent separatist agitators. Dr. Matthies, who has been approved as provisional president of the first Rhineland republic, is reported by French forces to have formed a provisional government at Duren. This would seem to indicate that the Rhineland leaders of the separatist movement were those who started yesterday's coup.

Comparative Calm Recorded

So far, comparative calm has apparently marked the progress of the Separatist revolt. French sources reported an unimportant clash of troops and separatists at Mayence at dawn today, after which the revolters were reported to have withdrawn temporarily to the outskirts. The seizure of Aix la Chapelle by the separatists was accomplished quietly Sunday morning.

Coup Accomplished at Midnight

Advocates of the separatist republic, apparently numbering less than 10,000, started shortly after midnight, at a time when German inhabitants loyal to the Reich were asleep. Organized groups of citizens, distinguished by their arm bands in Rhineland republic colors, moved to allotted points in public buildings. Authorities at Aix la Chapelle were informed the republic coup was an accomplished fact.

There was no resistance.

SEPARATISTS ARE IN CONTROL AT MAYENCE

Mayence, Oct. 22.—Separatists were in control of all public buildings here today.

Proclamations were posted throughout the city announcing establishment of a Rhineland republic.

AIX LA CHAPELLE REPORTED TRANQUIL

London, Oct. 22.—Aix la Chapelle is tranquil, and life is proceeding normally, the correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs.

The principal buildings are flying the red, green and white ensign of the Rhineland republic.

Patrols are marching through the streets without uniforms except for red, white and green armlets.

FRANCE CLAIMS NO RESPONSIBILITY

Paris, Oct. 22.—"France is not responsible for the establishment of the Rhineland republic," Pertinax, usually regarded as the journalistic mouthpiece of the government, said in a signed editorial today.

France regards the event as the inevitable consequence of Germany's mad course in following out passive resistance to the French-Belgian occupation of the Ruhr.

"It was this resistance that caused

U. S Supreme Court Important Decisions

IMPEACHMENT CHARGE AGAINST GOV. J. C. WALTON

PRESENTED TO LOWER HOUSE, OKLAHOMA, AT 2 P. M. TODAY

INDICTMENT CONSISTS OF THIRTY-FIVE CLOSELY TYPED WRITTEN PAGES

(By United Press)
Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 22.—Impeachment charges against Governor J. C. Walton in the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature will be ready at 2 p. m. today.

The indictment against Governor Walton, consisting of approximately 35 closely typewritten pages, was completed at a midnight session of a committee which investigated the governor's administration.

The indictment will come before the house tonight or early tomorrow. The house is practically certain to recommend his removal.

The recommendations will then go to the senate, which will either convict or exonerate the governor. The senate will take up the impeachment this week, leaders said.

FARMERS PROFIT BY SALES OF BUTTERFAT

MARSHALL COUNTY BANK DEPOSITS HEAVY AS A RESULT OF DAIRY INDUSTRY

Gatzke, Minn., Oct. 22.—With 123 patrons on the payroll of the local creamery, some of them received more than $100 a month in checks for their butterfat, farmers living around Gatzke, in eastern Marshall county, 20 miles from the nearest railroad, are "well-fixed" this fall. Oscar H. Smith, state commissioner of immigration, said. Records of one Gatzke bank show that the institution's reserve is nearly three times as large as the amount required by the banking department. Farmers of the district have cut down their small grain acreage, putting more and more into cows, alfalfa and corn, Mr. Smith said. Several reported harvesting upwards of 350 pounds of alfalfa seed to the acre on land that is selling for from $15 to $40 an acre.

CONFERENCE OF LAW ENFORCING OFFICIALS

(By United Press)
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 22.—A conference of law enforcing officials will be called in Iowa at an early date in accordance with the program recommended by President Coolidge, Acting Governor John Hamill declared today.

Governor Hamill attended the meeting of governors with the president at Washington Saturday.

"I intend to execute in every detail the recommendations of the president," Hamill said.

CHORUS GIRL, 21, ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—Peggy Neil, 21, chorus girl, is in Jefferson hospital today fighting for her life after an attempt to commit suicide by swallowing a poison tablet, according to police.

The young actress told authorities her home is in Chicago. Miss Neil was released Saturday night from the cast of the "Dancing Girl," a musical comedy. Members of the comedy told police that the girl attempted to end her life because she was despondent and because of a broken romance with a University of Pennsylvania student, said to have been of a wealthy Southern family.

BOSTON FRUIT SHIP IS POUNDING IN HEAVY SEAS; PASSENGERS OFF

(By United Press)
Boston, Oct. 22.—The United Fruit Steamer San Gil, Boston to Colon, was reported pounding in heavy seas on a reef off Providence Island, according to a wireless message intercepted here today.

The message read "Weather bad ship pounding passengers taking to boats help."

Later a message was received from the steamer Pastores saying it would arrive about noon at the position given by the San Gil.

Providence Island is located several hundred miles southwest of Jamaica and east of Nicaragua. It is a Colombian possession.

PASSENGERS TRANSFERRED TO ANOTHER VESSEL

Boston, Oct. 22.—All passengers of the United Fruit company steamer San Gil, pounding in heavy seas on a reef off the coast of Providence Island in the Caribbean Sea, have been transferred to the Sauk Blas, according to information received at the headquarters of the company here today.

The Sauk Blas, en route to Port Limon, reached the side of the San Gil a few hours after the message was sent out. According to the steamship company there were no casualties.

PRINCETON THEATRE OWNER USES PEAT FOR FUEL IN PLACE

Princeton, Minn., Oct. 22.—Max Kruschke, motion picture theater operator at Princeton, Minn., is heating the theater and 11 apartments by burning the surface of a farm four miles from his home.

Coal worries of other northwest fuel users haven't invaded Mr. Kruschke's office. He supplies his fuel needs at $1.50 a ton while other users are required to pay from $10 to $20 a ton.

The cost of hauling the fuel from the farm to the theater building represents the cost of the fuel.

Mr. Kruschke is burning peat.

For two years, the Princeton man has been experimenting with peat as fuel and he said that he was convinced that his experiment has been successful. He has laid in the same number of tons of peat that would be required were he to burn coal.

"This will carry me through the winter," he said. "I burn some wood with the peat but I find the use of this fuel entirely practical. The peat burns with less smoke and soot and furnishes an intense heat. Peat is more bulky than coal and the storage requires more room, since I use the fuel in its raw state."

Mr. Kruschke gets his peat from a farm near Long Siding, in Mille Lacs county. A small tractor and plow loosen the soil surface and with a truck he gathers the fuel and hauls it to his theater building. The total operations costs $1.50 a ton, he said. Other residents of that section have been inclined to scoff at Mr. Kruschke's idea of solving the fuel problem but he said his experience in the last two years has convinced him that he would require no coal to keep his theater patrons and tenants in his three story building comfortable in the winter.

The firebox beneath his boilers in the building has been unaltered and the peat fuel burns readily and with even more heat than coal.

Normally, Mr. Kruschke said he believed peat for fuel should go through a drying process but this year, because of the lack of rain, the peat may be gathered and burned without further treatment.

"My opinion is that 7,000,000 to 10,000,000 acres of peat can be gathered in Minnesota, treated and used on the commercial market," Mr. Kruschke said. "Experiments now being made will enable the dealers to handle the peat, since the treatment will reduce the bulk to about the quantity of coal."

7 HANDED DOWN IN VARIETY OF CASES BY HIGH TRIBUNAL

ONE REGARDS INTERPRETATION OF THE FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

ANOTHER CONCERNS ALLEGED DEFRAUDING OF THE U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 22.—The supreme court today held that persons charged with violations of the national prohibition act before coming to trial in federal courts need not always be taken before a grand jury for indictment.

John Brede appealed to the supreme court on the grounds that he had been brought to trial on a criminal information charge brought by a district attorney and had been sentenced to $500 fine and 60 days in jail.

Contending that this constituted an "infamous" crime and punishment within the limits of the fifth constitutional amendment prescribing that before trial on an infamous crime the accused must be placed under indictment by a grand jury, Brede sought release from custody on a writ of habeas corpus. The court ordered that Brede be retained in custody.

HELD FOR DEFRAUDING U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

The supreme court today declared constitutional the act of congress decreeing that a fraud perpetrated against "any corporation in which the United States is a stockholder is a crime against the United States."

ANOTHER RED HAT TO AMERICA SLATED

SEMI-OFFICIAL INFORMATION IS GIVEN THAT POPE WILL ELEVATE BISHOP

Rome, Oct. 22.—Elevation of another American bishop to a cardinal is expected and would be the materialization of the pope's sentiments expressed in his letter to the bishop's convention in Washington, the semi-official Volta agency asserted.

Bestowal of another red hat at the next consistory would be a token of papal gratification over the increasing co-operation the United States is giving the Catholic church in all fields of its activity, the agency said.

Another indication of the pope's feeling for America was seen in the audience he granted Saturday to 60 sailors of the cruiser Detroit, presented by the vicerector of the American college in Rome. The sailors were allowed to kiss the papal ring.

Branch banking has become prevalent by national banks in a number of states.

Time Properly Spent.

What is meant by redeeming time? It is to fill the hours full of richest freight, to fill them with the life of thought, feeling, action, as they pass by. One moment of self-conquest, one good action really done, yes, one effort to do right, really made, has the sea of time put upon it.—James Freeman Clark.

way, Charles Ogle and Louise Dresser, was accorded a warm reception at its premier presentation at the Lyceum theatre yesterday.

One might be inclined to believe that this picture would suffer by comparison with Mr. Cruze's former production, "The Covered Wagon" and others. But, although an entirely different story than either of these, the picture more than lives up to the high standard set by them.

It will be shown again tonight and Tuesday, and no one should miss seeing it.

Costly Urban Settings in "Enemies of Women"

"Enemies of Women," Cosmopolitan Corporation's gigantic production of the Ibanez story, which will be screened at the New Park last time tonight, proved a happy hunting ground for the scenic artist, Joseph Urban. It is full to the brim with atmosphere. Mr. Urban revels in stories that hold atmosphere, for it is his task at the Cosmopolitan's studios to re-create for the camera's devouring eye the particular scenic atmosphere of the story being prepared. Coming to the screen with his rare gifts, Mr. Urban has set up a higher, truer, more imaginative type of picture setting than the films had ever known before.

The artist's favorite setting of his many in "Enemies of Women" is the boudoir of Alicia, Duchess De Delille, the role played by Alma Rubens. It is done in grey, stripped in silver, for colors photograph, of course. The walls hold intriguing niches for bits of rare statuary, a dressing table set in a half-circled enclosure, raised two steps from the remainder of the room, is exquisitely done in silver and silk, crystal bottles and the myriad of exquisite details of an exotic woman.

9-FOOT WATERWAY ACROSS ILLINOIS

(By United Press)

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22—The United States senate committee investigating the feasibility of a nine-foot waterway across Illinois to complete a Great Lakes-to-the-Gulf water transportation system met no opposition in crossing Illinois, Senator Medill McCormick, chairman, said today.

"Genuine enthusiasm for the project was manifested all along the way from Chicago, only conflicts of opinion being expressed in regard to minor phases as they affect certain localities," he said.

KAYSEES BUNCH HITS FOR A WIN OVER THE ORIOLES

Baltimore, Oct. 22—Bunching their base hits and aided by errors and bases on balls, the Kansas City Blues had little trouble downing the Baltimore Internationals in the sixth game of the little world's series here 12 to 5. This gives Kansas City four wins against two for Baltimore, and means that the Blues must win only one game in the remaining three to clinch the minor league title.

NOTRE DAME PUTS IT OVER PRINCETON

Princeton, Oct. 22—Notre Dame swept to victory over Princeton Saturday, put an end to the alleged supremacy of the east, and gave the Tigers, champions of 1922, one of the worst trouncings in the history of Old Nassau, beating them, 25 to 2.

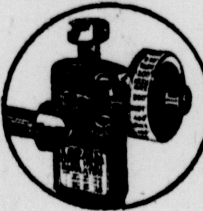

In every branch of the sport Knute Rockne's pupils gave the easterners a lesson on how this game is played.

PRESENTED BY JESSE L. LASKY

JAMES CRUZE
PRODUCTION

When a grinning Fate takes a polished valet straight from England to the "wild and woolly" West—you want to be there to see the fireworks! Made by the director of "The Covered Wagon."

Played at the Garrick Theatre, Minneapolis, the first week in October to capacity houses.

Says Carlton Miles in The Minneapolis Journal:

If any more films as good as "Ruggles of Red Gap" are shown this Fall, we intend to mount the nearest lamppost and shout to the visiting tourists from Iowa that the motion pictures are no longer in their infancy.

Bradley Morrison Writes in The Minneapolis Tribune:

Minneapolis will wait many a day before it is visited again by such a comedy as "Ruggles of Red Gap" which is numbered among the screen offerings of the current week. "Ruggles" holds forth at the Garrick Theatre—to crowded houses, we hope, for pictures such as this one are none too plentiful, and well merit the public's support.

ADJUSTED COMPENSATION

WITH the approach of the next session of congress adjusted compensation for the men who served in the World war is receiving considerable attention. This subject will be considered once more and the probability is that it will receive favorable consideration and will not again be vetoed by the president. Political pressure will be brought to bear upon congress and the approach of an election will help to put it across. It may be stated frankly that the reason for its favorable consideration will lie in the political effect of favorable action rather than in recognition of the justice that underlies the demand.

We cannot agree with those editorial writers who affirm that it is probable that a majority of service men are at this time opposed to adjusted compensation. There is reason to believe that in such statements the wish is father of the thought. Reputable organizations of service men have looked into the opposition and have found that those who are loudest in their criticism of adjusted compensation are not representative service men. The value of their contribution to the discussion is largely reduced when it is known just who they are.

As to the wisdom of passing an adjusted compensation bill at this time, much may be said on either side, with the probability that the strength of the argument would lie with those opposed to such a measure. The real value of such legislation would have come through the passing of the bill just after the armistice was signed and when men were returning to the United States without any assurance of a livelihood. Then the men who had served their country on foreign soil or in training camps were in need of financial help but with the passing of the years and the restored prosperity which has given work to almost all of these men the need is not so great. Of course this does not take away the point of the argument that an adjusted compensation bill is needed to mete out justice to men who served their country for a dollar a day while those who stayed at home were pulling down large wages because of a shortage of labor caused by taking so many men into the fighting forces of the country.

It is probable that discussion of this question is not urgent at this time when it is conceded that congress will pass such a measure. Those who do not approve of it are not compelled to accept the money voted in such a measure and the consistency of their stand will be proved by whether, after criticizing it, they accept the bonus when it has been voted. As it is practically certain that the measure will pass those who are opposed to it, because they believe that there ought not to be any bonus given to a man for serving his country, will do well to stress the proposed legislation favored by the late President Harding which would see to it that in case of another war all men, money, industrial plants and other resources would be subject to the will of the country which by general conscription would control their service and fix their compensation.

THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

THE conference of British leaders and prime ministers of the several territories which form the British Empire has not yet been given a name. In 1921 there was talk of naming it the Imperial Cabinet but this called forth opposition from the visiting representatives of the far-flung territories. Since then it has been named the Imperial Conference but this name has not been accepted and is used in place of a better one.

The failure to find a suitable name which would be acceptable to the British and the prime ministers from the colonies is indicative of an underlying difference of opinion in which it is hard to find a common ground whereon both the visitors and the British can stand. The conference of 1923 is facing many difficult problems which must be adjusted if the relations between London and the seats of government of the territories composing the empire are to be smooth. Britain has lost prestige on the continent where her influence is less commanding than it has been for many years. Just how to shape her foreign policy so that it will have the approval of Canada and Australia is one of the problems that must be faced.

Of the greatest concern to both the mother country and the independent states is the present economic and industrial status of Britain. Unemployment has not been met with any marked degree of success and there is little hope of reducing it by building up a larger export trade with Europe, the conditions in Europe prohibiting any such expansion. Because there is practically no hope of increasing exports to Europe there is talk of making the empire self-sufficient, but such a plan carries with it its own difficulties. At present the countries within the commonwealth of nations cannot consume the produce and products of these countries by any plan of mutual exchange. And efforts that have been directed to encouraging emigration of those workmen in Britain who are unemployed have not met with any marked success. The colonies call for farm hands while most of the unemployed are factory hands unused to work on the farm. Many who have left Britain for work in the colonies have soon become dissatisfied with conditions and have asked to be returned to Britain. When the Prince of Wales was in Canada a large number of such dissatisfied men asked to be presented to him that they might state their grievances and the Prince met a delegation of the dissatisfied ones.

The problems of Britain and her colonies are not easy to solve. British aristocrats are not willing to allow the representatives of far-flung territories to determine the foreign policy of Great Britain while the peoples in these territories are not willing to be used by the British in their program unless they have a voice in determining what the policy is to be. And as the interests of the different countries differ the road to agreement is not an easy one. Lloyd George while in Canada pointed out that the development of the United States and the British commonwealth of nations must travel along different lines. In the United States it is desirable that a unity of purpose and a oneness of viewpoint should be encouraged but in the British Empire it is necessary to develop the differences between the different peoples while attempting to have the diversified elements agree on such things as are common to all of them.

THE AMERICAN LEGION AND THE KLAN

THERE is a tendency on the part of some to criticize the national convention of the American Legion because its resolution, which expressed opposition to individuals and organizations that take the law into their own hands, did not name the Ku Klux Klan. But perhaps the Legion was well-advised in taking this attitude. Within it there are members of the Klan whose membership in it would have made a resolution which named it very much like a personal rebuke, and the resolution passed by the convention was explicit enough to show where the Legion stands. There is another reason why it may be well that the resolution did not name any organization. Out of the activities of the Klan other organizations may grow, for the purpose of combatting it, and they may adopt the same methods, and in making the resolution general the Legion expressed itself in such a way that any and all organizations that seek to enforce their will upon others by methods that are unconstitutional are condemned by it.

There is no doubt but that many members of the Klan entered it because they saw something in it which seemed to be good. They are opposed to the lawlessness that is rampant and they wish to see those who insult the decencies of life punished. But what they don't see is that they themselves by taking the law into their own hands are not really helping the situation even though they wish to help it. Their intentions may be good but their methods are not.

Of course any person has a right to join the Klan so long as the Klan is not outlawed in the territory in which it is working. But on the same ground men have argued that they have a right to join the I. W. W. and the Russian Internationale. Each of these proposes to secure its ends by other means than the courts of law and accordingly there ought to be a sympathy of one for the others. But there is not, and the Klan would be the first to oppose the other two.

The Klan exists because the machinery of our legal system, built up through many years, has failed to secure the best results, and instead of going about to repair the machinery they throw it aside and return to the methods which were used in the past and before the developing intelligence of the race arrived at better methods. It is possible to return to duelling, to racial wars and religious persecution, with the Inquisition, the thumb screw, the drowning, burning and maiming of those who dissent, but as one age's oppressors are the next age's oppressed those who encourage such methods are storing up suffering for their children. The Negro cannot help being black and he did not come here of his own free will and accord, he was brought here; the Jew cannot help being a Jew, nor the Catholic being a Catholic, any more than those who join organizations opposed to these can help being what they are. No man chooses his race or his parents and few men choose their religion; they are born without their consent and their religious convictions are put into them by their environment and training and few men change them. Nor is all of the good found in any one race or religion, and all of the bad is not outside of a group that seeks to suppress other groups. There are many good men in the Klan, men who would be better out of it showing their faces and getting justice and respect for law through the proper channels.

Two great foreigners will visit Minneapolis within a week when Johan Bojer, the distinguished Norwegian author, and Archbishop Nathan Soderblom, head of the state church of Sweden, visit the city. But their entrance will be like going home for there are not a few of their fellow countrymen in that city.

LYDD GEORGE has found out that cross-country trips are not so taxing in England as they are in the United States.

Gives Chin a Rest.

"It says here: 'One of the idols most revered by any heathen is a figure of a woman, seated, resting her chin in her hands,'" said Mrs. Farr, reading from a book.

"Which proves they are about the wisest people on earth," suggested her husband.

"How so, Orrin?"

"Well," said Mr. Farr, with emphasis, "because they make a deity of a woman who has sense enough to give her chin a rest."—Life.

Flour From Canada.

Up to recently the United States supplied practically all of the flour imported into Cuba. In 1919 Canada supplied 1.9 per cent of Cuban flour imports, compared with 97.9 per cent from the United States. In 1920 and 1921 Canada supplied 3.4 and 3.8 per cent, respectively, while the United States supplied 96.4 per cent in both years. Importers state that Canadian competition has recently shown a marked increase.

New Zealand Flocks Dwindle.

One of the difficulties operating against the meat-freezing industry in New Zealand is the decrease in the number of sheep in the dominion, success in this industry being largely dependent upon maintenance of production. It is hoped, however, that putting more reclaimed land into condition for grazing will eventually bring the flocks back to normal.

Big Horn's Water Power.

A party of government engineers, said to be the sixth party ever to go through the tortuous canyon of Big Horn river in Wyoming and Montana, will soon publish a report showing how that stream can be dammed to furnish 84,000 continuous horsepower, says the Kansas City Star.

New Zealand Building.

New Zealand expects to raise $5,000,000 to aid persons desiring to build homes. The new fund, if approved by the government, will allow an advance up to 95 per cent of construction costs. The government has already assisted in the building of 12,831 homes at an expenditure of about $91,000,000.

ADJUSTED COMPENSATION

WITH the approach of the next session of congress adjusted compensation for the men who served in the World war is receiving considerable attention. This subject will be considered once more and the probability is that it will receive favorable consideration and will not again be vetoed by the president. Political pressure will be brought to bear upon congress and the approach of an election will help to put it across. It may be stated frankly that the reason for its favorable consideration will lie in the political effect of favorable action rather than in recognition of the justice that underlies the demand.

We cannot agree with those editorial writers who affirm that it is probable that a majority of service men are at this time opposed to adjusted compensation. There is reason to believe that in such statements the wish is father of the thought. Reputable organizations of service men have looked into the opposition and have found that those who are loudest in their criticism of adjusted compensation are not representative service men. The value of their contribution to the discussion is largely reduced when it is known just who they are.

As to the wisdom of passing an adjusted compensation bill at this time, much may be said on either side, with the probability that the strength of the argument would lie with those opposed to such a measure. The real value of such legislation would have come through the passing of the bill just after the armistice was signed and when men were returning to the United States without any assurance of a livelihood. Then the men who had served their country on foreign soil or in training camps were in need of financial help but with the passing of the years and the restored prosperity which has given work to almost all of these men the need is not so great. Of course this does not take away the point of the argument that an adjusted compensation bill is needed to mete out justice to men who served their country for a dollar a day while those who stayed at home were pulling down large wages because of a shortage of labor caused by taking so many men into the fighting forces of the country.

It is probable that discussion of this question is not urgent at this time when it is conceded that congress will pass such a measure. Those who do not approve of it are not compelled to accept the money voted in such a measure and the consistency of their stand will be proved by whether, after criticizing it, they accept the bonus when it has been voted. As it is practically certain that the measure will pass those who are opposed to it, because they believe that there ought not to be any bonus given to a man for serving his country, will do well to stress the proposed legislation favored by the late President Harding which would see to it that in case of another war all men, money, industrial plants and other resources would be subject to the will of the country which by general conscription would control their service and fix their compensation.

THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

THE conference of British leaders and prime ministers of the several territories which form the British Empire has not yet been given a name. In 1921 there was talk of naming it the Imperial Cabinet but this called forth opposition from the visiting representatives of the far-flung territories. Since then it has been named the Imperial Conference but this name has not been accepted and is used in place of a better one.

The failure to find a suitable name which would be acceptable to the British and the prime ministers from the colonies is indicative of an underlying difference of opinion in which it is hard to find a common ground whereon both the visitors and the British can stand. The conference of 1923 is facing many difficult problems which must be adjusted if the relations between London and the seats of government of the territories composing the empire are to be smooth. Britain has lost prestige on the continent where her influence is less commanding than it has been for many years. Just how to shape her foreign policy so that it will have the approval of Canada and Australia is one of the problems that must be faced.

Of the greatest concern to both the mother country and the independent states is the present economic and industrial status of Britain. Unemployment has not been met with any marked degree of success and there is little hope of reducing it by building up a larger export trade with Europe, the conditions in Europe prohibiting any such expansion. Because there is practically no hope of increasing exports to Europe there is talk of making the empire self-sufficient, but such a plan carries with it its own difficulties. At present the countries within the commonwealth of nations cannot consume the produce and products of these countries by any plan of mutual exchange. And efforts that have been directed to encouraging emigration of those workmen in Britain who are unemployed have not met with any marked success. The colonies call for farm hands while most of the unemployed are factory hands unused to work on the farm. Many who have left Britain for work in the colonies have soon become dissatisfied with conditions and have asked to be returned to Britain. When the Prince of Wales was in Canada a large number of such dissatisfied men asked to be presented to him that they might state their grievances and the Prince met a delegation of the dissatisfied ones.

The problems of Britain and her colonies are not easy to solve. British aristocrats are not willing to allow the representatives of far-flung territories to determine the foreign policy of Great Britain while the peoples in these territories are not willing to be used by the British in their program unless they have a voice in determining what the policy is to be. And as the interests of the different countries differ the road to agreement is not an easy one. Lloyd George while in Canada pointed out that the development of the United States and the British commonwealth of nations must travel along different lines. In the United States it is desirable that a unity of purpose and a oneness of viewpoint should be encouraged but in the British Empire it is necessary to develop the differences between the different peoples while attempting to have the diversified elements agree on such things as are common to all of them.

THE AMERICAN LEGION AND THE KLAN

THERE is a tendency on the part of some to criticize the national convention of the American Legion because its resolution, which expressed opposition to individuals and organizations that take the law into their own hands, did not name the Ku Klux Klan. But perhaps the Legion was well-advised in taking this attitude. Within it there are members of the Klan whose membership in it would have made a resolution which named it very much like a personal rebuke, and the resolution passed by the convention was explicit enough to show where the Legion stands. There is another reason why it may be well that the resolution did not name any organization. Out of the activities of the Klan other organizations may grow, for the purpose of combatting it, and they may adopt the same methods, and in making the resolution general the Legion expressed itself in such a way that any and all organizations that seek to enforce their will upon others by methods that are unconstitutional are condemned by it.

There is no doubt but that many members of the Klan entered it because they saw something in it which seemed to be good. They are opposed to the lawlessness that is rampant and they wish to see those who insult the decencies of life punished. But what they don't see is that they themselves by taking the law into their own hands are not really helping the situation even though they wish to help it. Their intentions may be good but their methods are not.

Of course any person has a right to join the Klan so long as the Klan is not outlawed in the territory in which it is working. But on the same ground men have argued that they have a right to join the I. W. W. and the Russian Internationale. Each of these proposes to secure its ends by other means than the courts of law and accordingly there ought to be a sympathy of one for the others. But there is not, and the Klan would be the first to oppose the other two.

The Klan exists because the machinery of our legal system, built up through many years, has failed to secure the best results, and instead of going about to repair the machinery they throw it aside and return to the methods which were used in the past and before the developing intelligence of the race arrived at better methods. It is possible to return to duelling, to racial wars and religious persecution, with the Inquisition, the thumb screw, the drowning, burning and maiming of those who dissent, but as one age's oppressors are the next age's oppressed those who encourage such methods are storing up suffering for their children. The Negro cannot help being black and he did not come here of his own free will and accord, he was brought here; the Jew cannot help being a Jew, nor the Catholic being a Catholic, any more than those who join organizations opposed to these can help being what they are. No man chooses his race or his parents and few men choose their religion; they are born without their consent and their religious convictions are put into them by their environment and training and few men change them. Nor is all of the good found in any one race or religion, and all of the bad is not outside of a group that seeks to suppress other groups. There are many good men in the Klan, men who would be better out of it showing their faces and getting justice and respect for law through the proper channels.

Two great foreigners will visit Minneapolis within a week when Johan Bojer, the distinguished Norwegian author, and Archbishop Nathan Soderblom, head of the state church of Sweden, visit the city. But their entrance will be like going home for there are not a few of their fellow countrymen in that city.

LLOYD GEORGE has found out that cross-country trips are not so taxing in England as they are in the United States.

Gives Chin a Rest.

"It says here: 'One of the idols most revered by any heathen is a figure of a woman, seated, resting her chin in her hands,'" said Mrs. Farr, reading from a book.

"Which proves they are about the wisest people on earth," suggested her husband.

"How so, Orrin?"

"Well," said Mr. Farr, with emphasis, "because they make a deity of a woman who has sense enough to give her chin a rest."—Life.

Flour From Canada.

Up to recently the United States supplied practically all of the flour imported into Cuba. In 1919 Canada supplied 1.9 per cent of Cuban flour imports, compared with 97.9 per cent from the United States. In 1920 and 1921 Canada supplied 3.4 and 3.8 per cent, respectively, while the United States supplied 96.4 per cent in both years. Importers state that Canadian competition has recently shown a marked increase.

New Zealand Flocks Dwindle.

One of the difficulties operating against the meat-freezing industry in New Zealand is the decrease in the number of sheep in the dominion, success in this industry being largely dependent upon maintenance of production. It is hoped, however, that putting more reclaimed land into condition for grazing will eventually bring the flocks back to normal.

Big Horn's Water Power.

A party of government engineers, said to be the sixth party ever to go through the tortuous canyon of Big Horn river in Wyoming and Montana, will soon publish a report showing how that stream can be dammed to furnish 84,000 continuous horsepower, says the Kansas City Star.

New Zealand Building.

New Zealand expects to raise $5,000,000 to aid persons desiring to build homes. The new fund, if approved by the government, will allow an advance up to 95 per cent of construction costs. The government has already assisted in the building of 12,861 homes at an expenditure of about $91,000,000.

LADY WILL JUDGE AT POULTRY SHOW

Mrs. John Kruse of Minneapolis Engaged by Crow Wing County Poultry Association

PROGRAM COMMITTEE NAMED

Cooperative Egg Marketing Movement to be Explained by Poultry Men

Mrs. John Kruse of Minneapolis, poultry expert and a licensed judge will be engaged to judge the prize winners at the Crow Wing County Poultry Association's annual show in December. It was voted at a meeting of the association held in the farmers room at the court house Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Kruse is one of the few judges licensed in Minnesota by the American Poultry Association. She judged the first local show two years ago and gave such splendid satisfaction that it was unanimously voted to re-engage her services.

A program committee was appointed, consisting of V. L. Hitch, R. S. Wilcox and L. W. Roth to arrange a suitable program to be held separate from the regular poultry show. Some efforts along this line have been attempted in the past, with good success, but have always been held in the same rooms with the show.

It is hoped that Mr. Hanson of Barnum, Minn., an experienced poultry man and one of the organizers of the cooperative egg marketing movement in connection with the creamery in his community, may be secured to address the association. It is said that the success of the egg marketing movement at Barnum is due largely to Mr. Hanson's efforts and the public is always interested in hearing about such ventures that have proven successful. Mr. Hanson is a capable business man. He resigned the cashiership of a bank to take up the poultry business.

The board of directors of the local association decided to issue tickets to the merchants of Brainerd to be given out to their patrons who are interested in the poultry show. This plan was carried out two years ago with excellent success.

The secretary was instructed to get prices on exhibition coops and report at the next meeting, which will be held next Sunday at the same hour and place. All interested are urged to attend.

CAR OVERTURNED ALL PLUNGED IN POND

A party of four, two young men and two girls, all from Brainerd, ran off the road where state highway No. 2 passes through the pond at Gull river, late Saturday night.

The car, a Dodge roadster, plunged into the water and turned completely over, it is said. No one was injured, although members of the party had considerable difficulty in extricating one of the girls, who was pinned beneath the car.

The young people were returning to Brainerd from a dance at Sylvan, it is stated.

FIRE THREATENED HACKENSACK TOWN

Four Buildings Destroyed Saturday Night, Origin of the Fire Unknown

4 BUSINESS HOUSES BURNED

Fire Saturday Morning at Kelliher Did Considerable Damage to Lumber Co., and Railway

A fire on Saturday evening threatened the town of Hackensack and destroyed four buildings.

The origin of the flames could not be learned. Trainmen on the Minnesota and International state that the buildings included the Royal Ice Cream Parlor, the City Meat Market, the Lake View hotel and the Gopher Real Estate Agency.

Fire at 2:30 Saturday morning is reported as destroying the round house and machine shops of the Crookston Lumber Company, at Kelliher. Several of the company's locomotives were destroyed also. Total losses was estimated at $60,000.

The foreman of the shops stated that his crew worked overtime on Friday night, leaving about nine o'clock. They detected an odor of something burning, but could not locate it, but it is believed now that some oily waste must have been burning or smoldering in some corner.

"Enemies of Women"

The picturesque profile of Lionel Barrymore is worth going miles to see, but you don't have to go that far. Over at the New Park theatre a final showing of "Enemies of Women," featuring the famous Barrymore and Alma Rubens, is being given this evening, and as one who viewed the picture on Saturday, I feel a few words on the excellence of this production should be given.

"Enemies of Women" is being shown now at the Garrick theatre in Minneapolis at an advance in price. Brainerd theatre-goers are privileged to see the same picture, at the same time, for the usual price. Sinclair Lewis needs no longer sneer at small town disadvantages.

This picture is a truly remarkable one, and the most blasé movie patron will be thrilled by the tremendously dramatic action, of which a sabre duel at night, in a snowy semi-circle lit by flaring torches, and surrounded by white, frightened faces of women, is but the first peak.

The story, one of regeneration of man and woman through service to humanity, is told amidst a constant rumbling of the cannons of war.

Connoisseurs of beauty will find a garden of feminine loveliness, superbly gowned, amid stage settings pictorially perfect. The scenes of Nice, Monte Carlo and Paris are unusual, and very much worth seeing for themselves alone, but as a background for the intriguing story they are unsurpassed. All in all, "Enemies of Women" is a super-picture, and one not to be missed by those who have graduated from slapstick stuff. It is an artistic triumph!

FIRE THREATENED HACKENSACK TOWN

Four Buildings Destroyed Saturday Night, Origin of the Fire Unknown

4 BUSINESS HOUSES BURNED

Fire Saturday Morning at Kelliher Did Considerable Damage to Lumber Co., and Railway

A fire on Saturday evening threatened the town of Hackensack and destroyed four buildings.

The origin of the flames could not be learned. Trainmen on the Minnesota and International state that the buildings included the Royal Ice Cream Parlor, the City Meat Market, the Lake View hotel and the Gopher Real Estate Agency.

Fire at 2:30 Saturday morning reported as destroying the round house and machine shops of the Crookston Lumber Company, at Kelliher. Several of the company's locomotives were destroyed also. Total losses was estimated at $60,000.

The foreman of the shops stated that his crew worked overtime on Friday night, leaving about nine o'clock. They detected an odor of something burning, but could not locate it, but it is believed now that some oily waste must have been burning or smoldering in some corner.

"Enemies of Women"
The picturesque profile of Lionel Barrymore is worth going miles to see, but you don't have to go that far. Over at the New Park theatre a final showing of "Enemies of Women," featuring the famous Barrymore and Alma Rubens, is being given this evening, and as one who viewed the picture on Saturday, I feel a few words on the excellence of this production should be given.

"Enemies of Women" is being shown now at the Garrick theatre in Minneapolis at an advance in price. Brainerd theatre-goers are privileged to see the same picture, at the same time, for the usual price. Sinclair Lewis needs no longer sneer at small town disadvantages.

This picture is a truly remarkable one, and the most blasé movie patron will be thrilled by the tremendously dramatic action, of which a sabre duel at night, in a snowy semi-circle lit by flaring torches, and surrounded by white, frightened faces of women, is but the first peak.

The story, one of regeneration of man and woman through service to humanity, is told amidst a constant rumbling of the cannons of war. Connoisseurs of beauty will find a garden of feminine loveliness, superbly gowned, amid stage settings pictorially perfect. The scenes of Nice, Monte Carlo and Paris are unusual, and very much worth seeing for themselves alone, but as a background for the intriguing story they are unsurpassed. All in all, "Enemies of Women" is a super-picture, and one not to be missed by those who have graduated from slapstick stuff. It is an artistic triumph!

FEW SHIFTS IN BIG LEAGUE MANAGERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Oct. 22.—Few changes during the winter months are expected among the pilots of the major league baseball clubs. Many of them have been signed to new contracts, several are in bomb-proof jobs and a few have contracts with more time to run.

Miller Huggins, Bill McKechnie, Wilbert Robinson and Arthur Fletcher were given new contracts before their athletes scattered at the close of the season. It was to be expected that they would be retained in their positions.

It was a fine tribute, from a fine man to a fine man, when Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees, announced that Huggins had been signed to a new contract, and added, "he can have the job as long as he wants it."

The esteem in which Huggins is held by his employer and the confidence that Ruppert has in his little manager was strikingly shown when Ruppert called him in his office, slapped a blank contract on the table and told him to write his own terms.

Huggins, in his characteristic way, would not ask for a raise and would sign only for one year. Ruppert gave him a substantial raise.

After many reports that his services were no longer desired because he "came too high," it was pleasing to all ball fans to learn that Uncle Wilbert Robinson, one of the finest characters in baseball, had been signed to a new three-year contract with the Brooklyn Robins.

Robby is one of the greatest managers in the game. He won two pennants for Brooklyn with nothing, and it is within the bounds of reason to hazard a guess that he might win another one under the same conditions before his new contract expires.

Pittsburgh's grandstand managers might have been pleased if Bill McKechnie had been deposed as manager of the Pirates, but Barney Dreyfuss wisely decided to give Bill another chance. He did well with the Pirates this year, and if he did make the mistake that some of his critical Pittsburgh fans charged against him, he made them in good faith—if that is an alibi.

There is every reason to believe that the Pirates will be reorganized and perhaps strengthened before the season opens next spring. A deal has already been arranged with the Chicago Cubs by which Hollocher will change places with Maranville. The deal depends upon the consent of the Rabbit, who now wants to play in Brooklyn.

Art Fletcher did as much as any game human could accomplish with the Phils. At least he kept them fighting, and that is some job, considering what he had to make fight. Fletcher is a smart manager and he is building. He may not win a pennant, but neither will he remain forever in the cellar.

Frank Chance deserved another chance with the Boston Red Sox, in the opinion of most baseball fans. He did as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and he might have done better next season.

Since the Red Sox have changed owners, however, it is only logical that the new bosses might want to install a new manager more familiar with their policies and, for this reason, it is thought that Lee Fohl, deposed manager of the St. Louis Browns, will get the job.

Fohl certainly deserves a better deal than he got in Cleveland and St. Louis. He is a credit to baseball and a shrewd manager. Jimmy Austin may be retained as manager of the Browns, but it is a cinch bet that he will never do any better than Fohl did with the St. Louis club, as long as George Sisler is out of the game.

Sisler claims that his eyes have improved and that he will be able to play again next season. Whether he plays or not, it is probable that he will be given a chance to try his hand at management.

In addition to being a very great player, Sisler is a smart young man, and perhaps he will do no worse than his predecessors, who have been handicapped by an awful weakness at third base and very ordinary pitching.

John McGraw, Branch Rickey and Tris Speaker, as part owners of their clubs, are certain of their jobs as long as they want to remain. Certainly no change for the better could be made with the Giants and the Indians.

During the middle of the last season, it was reported that Pat Moran was slipping in Cincinnati, and since the season ended it was reported that the owners of the Reds might make a change in the management.

The question naturally arises, where and how could the Reds be made to do any better than they did under the Miron regime.

MY OWN MAY

RACE ZEV SOON

ADMIRAL GRAYSON WANTS TO RACE HIS COLT WITH INTERNATIONAL CHAMPION

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 22.—My Own, Admiral Cary T. Grayson's three-year-old colt, is ready at any time to race Zev, the Sinclair colt who won the International championship from Papyrus, the British horse, at Belmont Park, Saturday, Grayson told the United Press today.

$100,000 OFFERED FOR A MATCH RACE

Los Angeles, Oct. 22.—An offer of a purse of $100,000 for a match race between Zev and My Own to be run Christmas day has been made by Dick Ferris, general manager of the new Culver City, Calif., race track.

Ferris today said he had laid the offer before Rear Admiral Grayson, owner of My Own, and was expecting an answer any moment.

Ferris wants to race the two three-year olds as the opening event of the Culver City racing season.

The offer specifies that the purse will be split 80 per cent to the winner and 20 per cent to the loser.

ZEV BEATS PYPYRUS BY SIX LENGTHS

New York, Oct. 22.—It was all Zev.

He finished so far ahead of Papyrus in the $100,000 international race at Belmont Park Saturday afternoon that it seemed as if the English horse must have heard of that skin ailment and feared that it might be infectious. At any rate, Papyrus was not in danger of catching Zev.

The American horse led from the quarter post to the finish, where his margin of victory was at least six lengths. Nevertheless it looked like a race throughout the first mile of the course.

60,000 See Race

Sixty thousand people, the largest crowd that ever saw a horse race in America, had a thrill until the final dash down the stretch, when the anticlimax set in.

The manner of Zev's victory may

ORE DIGGERS

PROVE HELPLESS

BLUE AND WHITE OF BRAINERD HIGH WINS 24 TO 0 VICTORY

(By L. P.)

Brainerd won a victory over the Crosby-Ironton eleven by a score of 24 to 0.

The powerful running attack of the Blue and White was working like a unit against Crosby and before it the Ore Diggers were helpless.

Led by "Capt." Fogelstrom, half-back, who was capably aided by Lowe, Lyddon and Dieckhaus, the B. H. S. backfield ripped off gain after gain through gaping holes in Crosby's forward wall, piling up 300 yard gains in scrimmage to Crosby's hard earned eighty yards.

Numerous gains of 10, 20, and even 40 yards were credited to Fogelstrom and most of them were made on terrific end runs.

"Capt." Fogelstrom's end runs and the passing of Molstad netted Brainerd large gains in the second quarter. Fogelstrom went through the Crosby line for Brainerd's first touchdown. Brainerd followed with another shortly after, on Crosby's fumble, and Lowe recovered the ball and ran 20 yards to Crosby's 15 yard line, where on a series of line plunges Brainerd proved helpless and a forward pass from Molstad to Peterson scored the Blue and White a second touchdown. Both times Fogelstrom missed his goal.

Brainerd was held several times on three downs and 15 yards to go, would call "Shorty" Molstad around end, and make it first down for Brainerd.

The first half ended with Brainerd 12 and Crosby 0.

Brainerd kicked off and then held, forcing Crosby to punt. Brainerd's ball on the 20 yard line, brought the ball up within striking distance of the goal by Lowe, Fogelstrom, Dieckhaus and Lyddon. Then Molstad passing shot the oval over the goal to Lyddon which scored the Blue and White a third touchdown.

Time and again Dieckhaus, Fogelstrom and Lowe rushed the ball to Crosby's 20 yard line, only to be penalized for off side.

The third period Brainerd continued to skirt Crosby's ends for large gains. With five minutes of play, Fogelstrom broke away for a 40 yard end run and later went over for the final touchdown.

Crosby found Brainerd's line a stone wall to get through and were forced to punt all the time. Lyddon, playing his first game for the B. H. S., did some mighty nice tackling and was a dangerous man on his tackling.

With the loss of five men Brainerd romped home with victory.

In Molstad and Day the B. H. S. had a pair of as fleet ends as we had seen in high school circles this year. Seldom did any man get around their ends.

Brainerd's line was a stone wall and deserved the best of praise for if it had not been for the line Brainerd's backs could not have made these large gains.

Much credit is due to Dieckhaus who called the signals and his 10 and 20 yard gains were great. He played the game with a badly bruised ankle.

Everyone on the team starred for Brainerd, while Johnson, Woods and Curtis starred for Crosby.

Score by quarters:

	1	2	3	4	Total
Crosby	0	0	0	0	0
Brainerd	0	12	6	6	24

Touchdowns, Brainerd, Fogelstrom 2, Lyddon 1, Peterson 1.

not have been dramatic but it was surprising. He outlasted an English derby winner, bred and trained to travel over a distance of ground.

They have said that Zev did not like a race of more than a mile and a quarter, but it was in the last two furlongs that the American three year old champion drew away from his rival most easily.

FOOTBALL SCORES

Luther defeated Camplon college at Decorah 27 to 0.

Shattuck lost a close game at Winona 6 to 0.

Nebraska and Kansas played to a scoreless deadlock.

The attack of Cornell's machine swept to a win over Colgate, 34 to 7.

South Dakota U and Nebraska Wesleyan played a scoreless tie. Syracuse won from Pittsburg 3 to 0.

Yale goal was crossed for the first time this season by Bucknell, old Eli winning 29 to 14.

St. Olaf and Concordia scored wins in the only state college title games on Saturday's schedule, the Northfield team tying Carleton for the conference lead by defeating Macalester 21 to 0, while Concordia pulled out a 3 to 0 win in a hard fought game with St. John.

Wisconsin outplayed Indiana, woefully on Jordan field, winning 52 to 0.

The improved Army team defeated Auburn 28 to 6.

MINNESOTA 27, NORTH DAKOTA 0

Minneapolis, Oct. 22.—Showing a decided improvement, Minnesota

romped to a 27 to 0 victory over North Dakota in the final practice game of the season on Northrop field. After a slow start in the first period, the Gophers slowly gained power, scored twice in the second and duplicated the feat in the final stanza.

Gophers Gain Confidence

Minnesota displayed great possibilities. The eleven that was forced to the limit by Ames and Haskell to win, proved to itself that it has the making of a dangerous machine, offensively and defensively. Another pleasant discovery was that Minnesota possesses a fierce driving array of backs, both regular and reserve. The line reserves also played well.

The defense against the aerial attack was much better but the tackling was very poor. The majority of the tackles made by Minnesota were above the shoulders. It must improve to stop Wisconsin's backs, the opposition next Saturday in the Maroon and Gold's first Big Ten game at Madison.

Staples Beats Wadena

Wadena, Minn., Oct. 22.—The Staples high school football team defeated the Wadena high eleven here, 33 to 12. McKinnon, star back of the losers was lost for the rest of the season when he suffered a broken shoulder.

The Essence of Real Brotherhood

Speaking editorially, under the caption, "A Hopeful Incident," the Beacon of Wichita, Kansas, in its issue of September 18, says:

"The banquet of the Industrial Relations Organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), reported in yesterday's Beacon, is a fine incident of the growing friendship in industrial relations."

"The most encouraging thing that is happening today in the industrial life of this country is in the new programs of co-operation that are being established between themselves and their employees by great employers. The best industrial plants in the country today are finding their own points of contact with their own men."

"In these new points of contact they are finding the basis of that essence of real brotherhood that should exist between the man who labors and the man who employs. This new tendency is the most hopeful thing in the industrial life of America today."

The banquet referred to concluded the Fifth Annual Industrial Conference of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) inaugurated under the guidance of the Board of Directors.

The Industrial Relations Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the crystallization of the plans of the Management for giving its employees a voice in the affairs of the Company, that they might sense the sheer joy that comes with independence, and thereby become better citizens, better husbands, better fathers, and better workmen.

The employee representatives of the Joint General Committee are elected by ballot of the employees. This Committee makes recommendations to the Management on matters pertaining to working and living conditions, hours, wages, safety, housing, athletics and other subjects of immediate interest to the employee.

Out of the 1400 cases which have been submitted to the Management by the Joint General Committees, 93.3% have been approved and made effective.

This exemplifies the spirit of fairness inherent throughout the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization.

It is an eloquent manifestation of the harmony prevailing throughout this shirt-sleeved organization of 27,000 men and women.

Through harmony is gained the whole-hearted, earnest effort which results in high-speed efficiency. This efficiency has made the Company a leader in the petroleum industry and enables it to render such a superior service to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

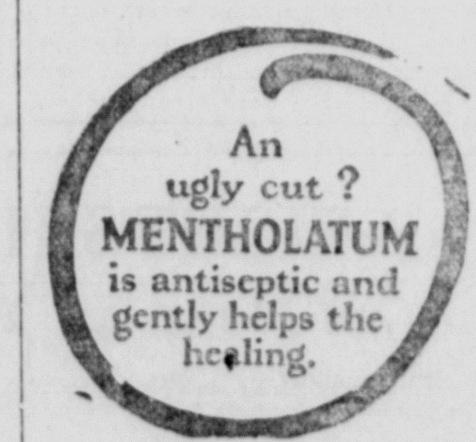

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Advt.

APPLY SULPHUR TO HEAL UP YOUR SKIN

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Menthosulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Menthosulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advt.

CLAY AWAY THE YEARS

Huggins, in his characteristic way, would not ask for a raise and would sign only for one year. Ruppert gave him a substantial raise.

After many reports that his services were no longer desired because he "came too high," it was pleasing to all ball fans to learn that Uncle Wilbert Robinson, one of the finest characters in baseball, had been signed to a new three-year contract with the Brooklyn Robins.

Robby is one of the greatest managers in the game. He won two pennants for Brooklyn with nothing, and it is within the bounds of reason to hazard a guess that he might win another one under the same conditions before his new contract expires.

Pittsburgh's grandstand managers might have been pleased if Bill McKechnie had been deposed as manager of the Pirates, but Barney Dreyfuss wisely decided to give Bill another chance. He did well with the Pirates this year, and if he did make the mistake that some of his critical Pittsburgh fans charged against him, he made them in good faith—if that is an alibi.

There is every reason to believe that the Pirates will be reorganized and perhaps strengthened before the season opens next spring. A deal has already been arranged with the Chicago Cubs by which Hollocher will change places with Maranville. The deal depends upon the consent of the Rabbit, who now wants to play in Brooklyn.

Art Fletcher did as much as any game human could accomplish with the Phils. At least he kept them fighting, and that is some job, considering what he had to make fight. Fletcher is a smart manager and he is building. He may not win a pennant, but neither will he remain forever in the cellar.

Frank Chance deserved another chance with the Boston Red Sox, in the opinion of most baseball fans. He did as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and he might have done better next season.

Since the Red Sox have changed owners, however, it is only logical that the new bosses might want to install a new manager more familiar with their policies and, for this reason, it is thought that Lee Fohl, deposed manager of the St. Louis Browns, will get the job.

Fohl certainly deserves a better deal than he got in Cleveland and St. Louis. He is a credit to baseball and a shrewd manager. Jimmy Austin may be retained as manager of the Browns, but it is a cinch bet that he will never do any better than Fohl did with the St. Louis club, as long as George Sisler is out of the game.

Sisler claims that his eyes have improved and that he will be able to play again next season. Whether he plays or not, it is probable that he will be given a chance to try his hand at management.

In addition to being a very great player, Sisler is a smart young man, and perhaps he will do no worse than his predecessors, who have been handicapped by an awful weakness at third base and very ordinary pitching.

John McGraw, Branch Rickey and Tris Speaker, as part owners of their clubs, are certain of their jobs as long as they want to remain. Certainly no change for the better could be made with the Giants and the Indians.

During the middle of the last season, it was reported that Pat Moran was slipping in Cincinnati, and since the season ended it was reported that the owners of the Reds might make a change in the management.

The question naturally arises, where and how could the Reds be made to do any better than they did under the Miron regime.

ADMIRAL GRAYSON WANTS TO RACE HIS COLT WITH INTERNATIONAL CHAMPION

(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 22.—My Own, Admiral Cary T. Grayson's three-year old colt, is ready at any time to race Zev, the Sinclair colt who won the International championship from Papyrus, the British horse, at Belmont Park, Saturday, Grayson told the United Press today.

$100,000 OFFERED FOR A MATCH RACE

Los Angeles, Oct. 22.—An offer of a purse of $100,000 for a match race between Zev and My Own to be run Christmas day has been made by Dick Ferris, general manager of the new Culver City, Calif., race track.

Ferris today said he had laid the offer before Rear Admiral Grayson, owner of My Own, and was expecting an answer any moment.

Ferris wants to race the two three-year olds as the opening event of the Culver City racing season.

The offer specifies that the purse will be split 80 per cent to the winner and 20 per cent to the loser.

ZEV BEATS PYPYRUS BY SIX LENGTHS

New York, Oct. 22.—It was all Zev.

He finished so far ahead of Papyrus in the $100,000 international race at Belmont Park Saturday afternoon that it seemed as if the English horse must have heard of that skin ailment and feared that it might be infectious. At any rate, Papyrus was not in danger of catching Zev.

The American horse led from the quarter post to the finish, where his margin of victory was at least six lengths. Nevertheless it looked like a race throughout the first mile of the course.

60,000 See Race

Sixty thousand people, the largest crowd that ever saw a horse race in America, had a thrill until the final dash down the stretch, when the anticlimax set in.

ORE DIGGERS PROVE HELPLESS

BLUE AND WHITE OF BRAINERD HIGH WINS 24 TO 0 VICTORY (By L. P.)

Brainerd won a victory over the Crosby-Ironton eleven by a score of 24 to 0.

The powerful running attack of the Blue and White was working like a unit against Crosby and before it the Ore Diggers were helpless.

Led by "Capt." Fogelstrom, half-back, who was capably aided by Lowe, Lyddon and Dieckhaus, the B. H. S. backfield ripped off gain after gain through gaping holes in Crosby's forward wall, piling up 300 yard gains in scrimmage to Crosby's hard earned eighty yards.

Numerous gains of 10, 20, and even 40 yards were credited to Fogelstrom and most of them were made on terrific end runs.

"Capt." Fogelstrom's end runs and the passing of Molstad netted Brainerd large gains in the second quarter. Fogelstrom went through the Crosby line for Brainerd's first touchdown. Brainerd followed with another shortly after, on Crosby's fumble, and Lowe recovered the ball and ran 20 yards to Crosby's 15 yard line, where on a series of line plunges Brainerd proved helpless and a forward pass from Molstad to Peterson scored the Blue and White a second touchdown. Both times Fogelstrom missed his goal.

Brainerd was held several times on three downs and 15 yards to go, would call "Shorty" Molstad around end, and make it first down for Brainerd.

The first half ended with Brainerd 12 and Crosby 0.

Brainerd kicked off and then held, forcing Crosby to punt. Brainerd's ball on the 20 yard line, brought the ball up within striking distance of the goal by Lowe, Fogelstrom, Dieckhaus and Lyddon. Then Molstad passing shot the oval over the goal to Lyddon which scored the Blue and White a third touchdown.

Time and again Dieckhaus, Fogelstrom and Lowe rushed the ball to Crosby's 20 yard line, only to be penalized for off side.

The third period Brainerd continued to skirt Crosby's ends for large gains. With five minutes of play, Fogelstrom broke away for a 40 yard end run and later went over for the final touchdown.

Crosby found Brainerd's line a stone wall to get through and were forced to punt all the time. Lyddon, playing his first game for the B. H. S., did some mighty nice tackling and was a dangerous man on his tackling.

With the loss of five men Brainerd romped home with victory.

In Molstad and Day the B. H. S. had a pair of as fleet ends as we had seen in high school circles this year. Seldom did any man get around their ends.

Brainerd's line was a stone wall and deserved the best of praise for if it had not been for the line Brainerd's backs could not have made these large gains.

Much credit is due to Dieckhaus who called the signals and his 10 and 20 yard gains were great. He played the game with a badly bruised ankle.

Everyone on the team starred for Brainerd, while Johnson, Woods and Curtis starred for Crosby.

Score by quarters:

	1	2	3	4	Total
Crosby	0	0	0	0	0
Brainerd	0	12	6	6	24

Touchdowns, Brainerd, Fogelstrom 2, Lyddon 1, Peterson 1.

not have been dramatic but it was surprising. He outlasted an English derby winner, bred and trained to travel over a distance of ground.

They have said that Zev did not like a race of more than a mile and a quarter, but it was in the last two furlongs that the American three year old champion drew away from his rival most easily.

FOOTBALL SCORES

Luther defeated Campton college at Decorah 27 to 0.

Shattuck lost a close game at Winoona 6 to 0.

Nebraska and Kansas played to a scoreless deadlock.

The attack of Cornell's machine swept to a win over Colgate, 34 to 7.

South Dakota U and Nebraska Wesleyan played a scoreless tie.

Syracuse won from Pittsburg 3 to 0.

Yale goal was crossed for the first time this season by Bucknell, old Ithaca winning 29 to 14.

St. Olaf and Concordia scored wins in the only state college title games on Saturday's schedule, the Northfield team tying Carleton for the conference lead by defeating Macalester 21 to 0, while Concordia pulled out a 3 to 0 win in a hard fought game with St. John.

Wisconsin outplayed Indiana, woefully on Jordan field, winning 52 to 0.

The improved Army team defeated Auburn 28 to 6.

MINNESOTA 27, NORTH DAKOTA 0

Minneapolis, Oct. 22.—Showing a decided improvement, Minnesota

romped to a 27 to 0 victory over North Dakota in the final practise game of the season on Northrop field. After a slow start in the first period, the Gophers slowly gained power, scored twice in the second and duplicated the feat in the final stanza.

Gophers Gain Confidence

Minnesota displayed great possibilities. The eleven that was forced to the limit by Ames and Haskell to win, proved to itself that it has the making of a dangerous machine, offensively and defensively. Another pleasant discovery was that Minnesota possesses a fierce driving array of backs, both regular and reserve. The line reserves also played well.

The defense against the aerial attack was much better but the tackling was very poor. The majority of the tackles made by Minnesota were above the shoulders. It must improve to stop Wisconsin's backs, the opposition next Saturday in the Maroon and Gold's first Big Ten game at Madison.

Staples Beats Wadena

Wadena, Minn., Oct. 22.—The Staples high school football team defeated the Wadena high school here, 33 to 12. McKinnon, star back of the losers was lost for the rest of the season when he suffered a broken shoulder.

The Essence of Real Brotherhood

Speaking editorially, under the caption, "A Hopeful Incident," the Beacon of Wichita, Kansas, in its issue of September 18, says:

"The banquet of the Industrial Relations Organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), reported in yesterday's Beacon, is a fine incident of the growing friendship in industrial relations."

"The most encouraging thing that is happening today in the industrial life of this country is in the new programs of co-operation that are being established between themselves and their employees by great employers. The best industrial plants in the country today are finding their own points of contact with their own men."

"In these new points of contact they are finding the base of that essence of real brotherhood that should exist between the man who labors and the man who employs. This new tendency is the most hopeful thing in the industrial life of America today."

The banquet referred to concluded the Fifth Annual Industrial Conference of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) inaugurated under the guidance of the Board of Directors.

The Industrial Relations Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the crystallization of the plans of the Management for giving its employees a voice in the affairs of the Company, that they might sense the sheer joy that comes with independence, and thereby become better citizens, better husbands, better fathers, and better workmen.

The employee representatives of the Joint General Committee are elected by ballot of the employees. This Committee makes recommendations to the Management on matters pertaining to working and living conditions, hours, wages, safety, housing, athletics and other subjects of immediate interest to the employee.

Out of the 1400 cases which have been submitted to the Management by the Joint General Committees, 93.3% have been approved and made effective.

This exemplifies the spirit of fairness inherent throughout the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization.

It is an eloquent manifestation of the harmony prevailing throughout this shirt-sleeved organization of 27,000 men and women.

Through harmony is gained the whole-hearted, earnest effort which results in high-speed efficiency. This efficiency has made the Company a leader in the petroleum industry and enables it to render such a superior service to the thirty million people of the Middle West.
